"BROADWAY BEAUTIES"

A TWO REEL CENTURY COMEDY Featuring

Edna Marian and Hilliard Warr

Edna, a winsome country lassie leaves home to seek her fortune in the big city. Her plump sweetie takes her to the train, tying his horse to the rear coach. When he returns, he finds his horse had been jerked out of the harness. Edna discovers the horse in town, and mails it back to him. He gets a flivver and goes to town. She, meanwhile gets a job in a jazzy cabaret. Her sweetie tries to enter in his countryfied clothes and is bounced. He repeats the attempts and is repeatedly bounced. Suddenly, he beholds his sweetie doing a feature dance. He makes for her. The proprietor chases him around a pool. Edna appears and refuses to leave him him, telling him that she is married - to the proprietor.
